EMPLOYEE FEEDBACK

- One new operator wrote in to say: "I wanted to take a moment to express my gratitude to the ambassadors. They always seem to be there when I need them. The bus drivers can handle any situation that arises on the bus, but it's a relief not to have to stop or manage issues while driving. Each Ambassador has their own strengths, so it's a good group of folks. Thanks again for all the support."
- "I wanted to share that we just took a trip to OTC and rode down on the 1, which was great. On the way back we got to ride with a new Ambassador. It was really awesome to watch her in action. She spoke to three people on the bus, one sleeping, one with his head down, and then another group I. I didn't hear what she was speaking to them about. Like I said, it was really great to see the impact of this position on the bus! We enjoyed our ride!"
- "An Ambassador had a woman in distress in the women's restroom earlier today and handled it fantastic. The woman was really upset. The Ambassador was so calm and showed a ton of compassion towards the person. The person in the bathroom was crying, very upset, and making a scene. The Ambassador asked several questions and let her know it was going to be OK and finally was able to get the woman the help she needed."

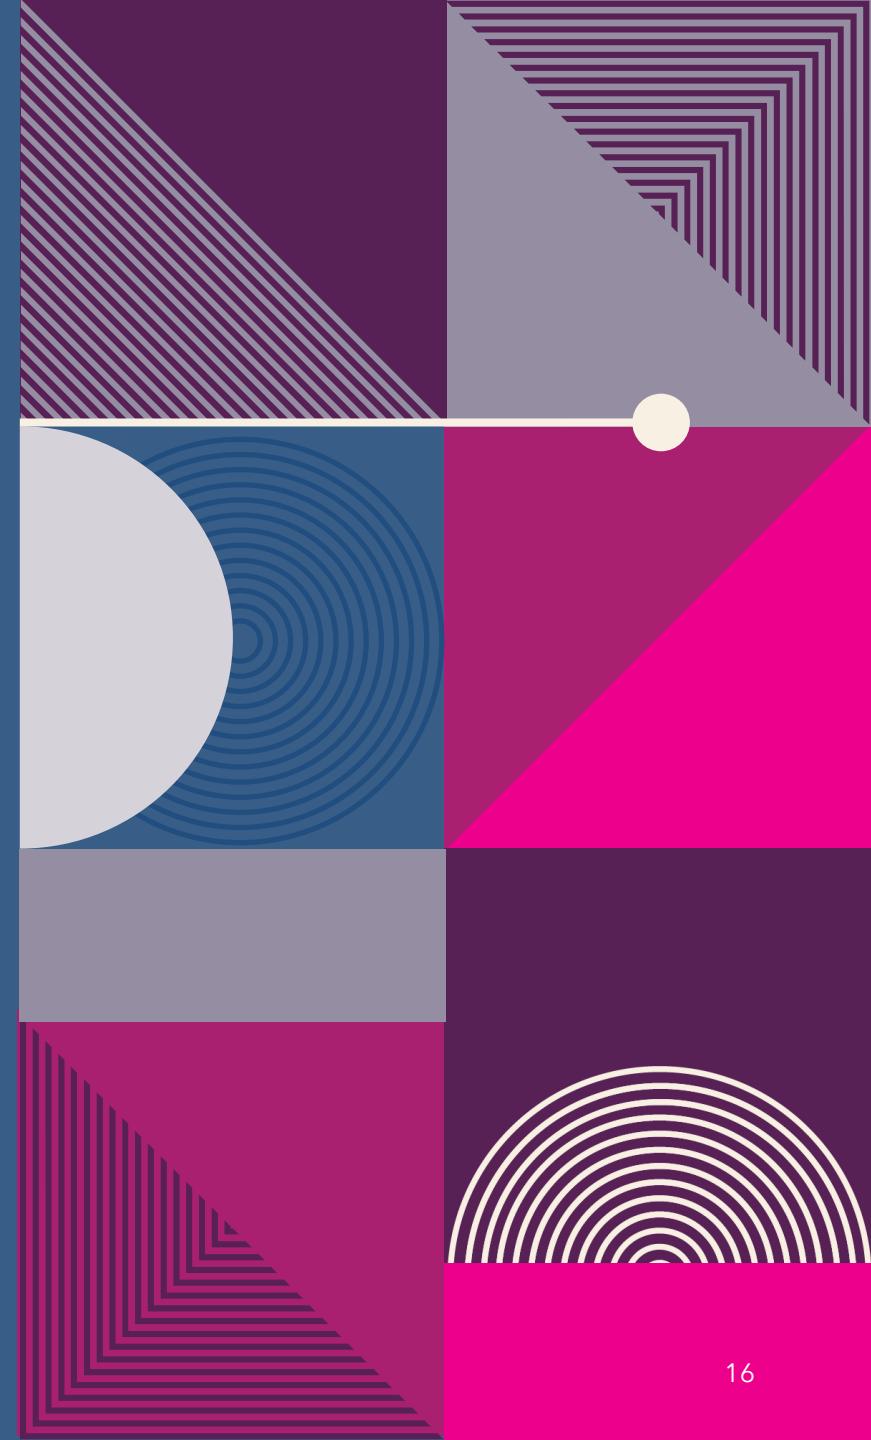

EFFECTS ON THE COMMUNITY AND UPCOMING INITIATIVES

COMMUNITY FEEDBACK

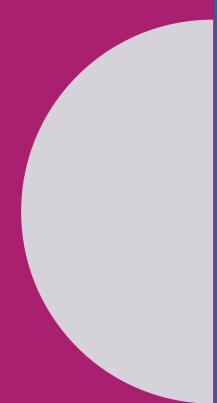

We have heard from countless members of the public thanking our Ambassadors for a job well done. It's hard to capture all of them.

- "A rider who has had issues in the past wanted to commend an Ambassador. The rider was impressed that they were willing to sit in the back with the other riders and talk. They thought it was a good move."
- "An elderly gentleman was at the Olympia Transit Center looking for his granddaughter. He mentioned that he was initially apprehensive coming down and searching for her. But was met by one of our Ambassadors who got him in touch with the right people to help find her."
- A particularly challenging passenger came into Customer Service downtown to say that "she really likes our Ambassadors. She really enjoys riding with them. She enjoys that they are cracking jokes to lighten the mood, and some of them spread kindness on the buses in many ways, including handing out lollipops to the kids."
- One of our Ambassadors was on the platform at OTC when someone walked up to them and said "We need more of you. You guys are great! I always breathe easier when I see you around. Thank you for all you do!"

OUR “WINS”

- Facilitated reunions between missing individuals and their family members.
- Linked community members to essential local resources.
- Reunited lost children with their parents.
- Established collaborations with local law enforcement and organizations such as the Crisis Response Unit to support community members.
- Professionally managed and de-escalated conflicts on buses, at transit centers, and bus stops.
- Assisted passengers with trip planning and coordinating bus transfers.

PROGRAM IMPACTS AND OUTCOMES

Measuring Program Impacts and Outcomes

The illustration depicts a bus stop scene. A blue bus is at a stop, with a sign that says 'BUS STOP'. A woman in an orange jacket is standing near the bus, holding a smartphone. A man in a blue uniform, possibly a bus driver or ambassador, is interacting with her. Another man in a blue shirt and dark pants is holding a map and talking to the woman. In the background, there's a city skyline with various buildings and icons representing social media or data analysis, such as a magnifying glass over a bar chart, a pie chart, and location markers. The overall theme is the measurement and analysis of program impacts and outcomes.

- Ambassadors have interacted with more than 4,400 passengers.
- They have addressed over 1,000 passenger-related behavioral issues.
- According to our records, they have traveled nearly 8,000 times on routes 62A and 62B, over 1,500 times on route 13, and more than 1,300 times on route 68.
